

PAVING DELAYED TO NEXT SPRING; CONCRETE WINS

Residents of Brawley and Wisconsin Vote Unanimously to Wait

WHAT WAS DECIDED
Paving of Brawley and Wisconsin streets delayed to the early spring of 1922.
Concrete on both Brawley and Wisconsin.
Brawley street to be 28 feet wide and Wisconsin 30.

Property owners on Brawley and Wisconsin streets, of whom a majority were present at the meeting at the city council rooms Monday evening, unanimously decided to delay the paving of those streets until next spring.

By an overwhelming majority, the Brawley and Wisconsin street residents voted in favor of reinforced concrete for the paving. The only other type of pavement which was considered was brick, and that, it seemed, was because brick was the only pavement that could feasibly be laid this fall.

Pfaffner for Brick
J. M. Pfaffner wanted immediate action on the paving question on Brawley street, and he declared himself for brick, not only because it could be laid this fall, but for the pavement itself. "I want the pavement in this fall," he said. "For one have been living in the sand long enough. A car can't cross Brawley street without getting stuck in the middle of the street. The engineer assures us brick would be a good pavement to lay this fall, and I believe that we should take the engineer's recommendation. With all the opposition to brick that we hear in the city, I never hear a word about the pavement on Main street, which has been down for 20 years, or on repeatedly, and is still in good shape."

Concrete supporters came back strong at the conclusion of Mr. Pfaffner's speech. H. B. Brooks, who led the concrete faction, declared the issue when he asked, "Can we have concrete this fall? If we can't, then there is no alternative but to take brick, which most of the property owners do want." He called the attention of the meeting to the condition of the block of brick pavement on Division street, near the Soo line depot, which he declared even though it was constructed of No. 1 brick, was in a terrible condition, considering the number of years it has been down.

Atwell Says "Yes"
His question was answered in the affirmative by City Attorney W. E. Atwell, who explained that the Milwaukee Construction company, which bid $2.55 on concrete with the provision that it get the Water, Brawley and Wisconsin street jobs, would not take Brawley and Wisconsin. This would prove that bid out and W. E. Atwell's bid of $2.55 would be the lowest, and he could be awarded the job. Talk at Mr. Atwell's withdrawal his bid was denied by Mr. Atwell, who declared that he couldn't do that without the acquiescence of the board of public works, and that wouldn't be given him. His guaranty check was still in the hands of City Clerk W. L. Brown, the clerk reported.

M. L. Gordon, representing the Trinity Lutheran church property on Brawley street, wanted the brick pavement. A talk following Mr. Brooks' "The fact that brick is the only pavement that could be laid this fall because there are still some connections to be made underground, not to mention the delay," he said. "Don't lay the pavement until every bit of underground work is done. We have had enough of this 'letting down and tearing up' in the city already. Main street, down town, has been torn up and torn up enough. It shows it, for isn't it smooth. We have made mistakes in the past, now let's try to do things right. Would the engineer recommend that brick be laid before all the connections are made?"

Brawley Not Settled
Mr. Gordon expressed the opinion that Brawley street was not sufficiently settled to allow paving of any kind to be done this fall. He cited the fact as a case where the street was allowed to settle sufficiently before the pavement was laid. City Attorney Atwell here interposed with the statement that all the connections would be made in a short time, declaring that the property owners had been served with notices to make all connections, and all that remained was to go down and put them in. It would

Wausau Murderer Remembers Being Sentenced by Judge Park

Jacob Kafetka, sentenced to spend the remainder of his natural life in the state prison at Waupun, was sentenced by Judge B. B. Park in circuit court, probably in Stevens Point, to two years in the state prison for attempted rape, he said in jail at Wausau after his trial.

Kafetka showed a change of front in the jail. While being tried he had given evidence of insanity, but to District Attorney G. J. Leicht and Sheriff F. E. Schroeder he said: "I am not crazy and never have been. I am thirty-two years of age and spent two years in the state prison for attempted rape." Kafetka was not certain where he was sentenced, but knew the presiding judge was B. B. Park, and it is believed he was sent up from Portage county.

When tried before Judge Reid Kafetka could not remember his age, said he had registered for the draft and the doctors said he was unfit for service, but further than that his memory was wholly at fault. He vaguely remembered a visit to his father a year ago at Bear Creek, but was not sure whether or not his mother was alive. Judge Park couldn't remember sentencing Kafetka, he said today.

FALL FROM BARN FATAL TO TOWN OF CARSON MAN

Andrew Slusarczyk Dies Of Injuries This Morning

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Andrew Slusarczyk, town of Carson man who fell from a barn on the A. F. Grubba farm near the "boom house" Monday morning, died at St. Michael's hospital at 4 a. m. today. His brother, Frank, who resides on a farm near Junction City, was at his bedside when he passed away. Although the injured man called for his brother while in his bed at the hospital, when Frank arrived at his side he was not recognized.

Hurt Internally
Slusarczyk's injuries consisted of a fractured skull, and internal injuries received as the result of the fall. He was working on the roof of the big barn with Leo Grubba, taking off "foot holds" on the roof, placed there while it was being shingled, when he slipped down the roof, struck the stange at the side of the barn, and fell 25 feet to a concrete driveway below. Blood gushed from wounds in his neck when he was picked up and brought to the hospital in the city.

Widow in Poland
He was past 50 years of age, and had worked on the Grubba farm since last March. His widow is living in Poland, but there are no children surviving. Besides his brother living near Junction City, there are other relatives, whose names could not be learned today. The funeral will be held Thursday morning at St. Bartholomew's church at Mill Creek, Rev. S. Lapinski officiating and burial following in the cemetery adjoining.

NUNS LEAVE THE CITY

400 Sisters Have Returned to Schools After Being at Motherhouse

There is a veritable exodus of nuns from St. Joseph's academy, the another home of Sisters of St. Joseph, a total of 400 having returned to their various schools within the past few days and many others will go later in the week.

Soo train No. 18, leaving Tuesday morning, was boarded by 104 members of the Sisterhood, most of whom were provided seats in a special coach which was added at the local station. An extra coach was also attached to Soo train No. 6 Tuesday morning, when 50 nuns started for points east and south, several of them going as far as St. Louis.

SUPERVISING TEACHERS

ATTENDING CONVENTION

The Misses Regina H. Somers and Lucile M. Berard, county supervising teachers, went to Madison Tuesday to attend the annual conference of the Wisconsin Supervising Teachers' association to be held in the assembly hall of the capitol, August 24 to 27. Miss Alice M. Gordon, county superintendent, leaves Thursday to attend the Friday and Saturday sessions.

ROUNDED CURBS BEING PUT IN AT ONE CORNER

Engineer Reichardt Puts Into Effect Plan to Facilitate Movement of Traffic

Rounded curbs are being put in on the four corners at Clark street and Strong's avenue. At the Auto Sales side, the radius from the inside line of the two walks is 12 feet, the full width of the walk on Clark street and greater than the width on the avenue. Yet it has been possible to increase the driving space at the turn by fully six feet. A grating will be put in over the manhole and there will be a slope from the curb to it to facilitate drainage.

On the Library, Hardware Insurance and Hotel corners the space to be gained will be a little less.

Engineer W. F. Reichardt says the efficiency of the street will be increased fully 50 per cent. Cars swinging around a corner will be able to follow the curb and there will be no reason to go out into the street beyond the middle line as is now done when a large car turns. There will be less congestion on the corners and less liability of accident.

The changes at Clark street and Strong's avenue have been made by the engineer on his own authority as he is in charge of the new pavement on the street. They are being made for a nominal cost while the contractor has men and materials available.

Worst in America

Colonel Reichardt recommends that the same work be done on the corners of Main street and Strong's avenue and Main and Third streets. "You can be sure I would do it on my own authority if I could," he said to the Journal today, "just as I did at the other corners. But I must have authority from the board of public works and council to make the changes on Main street and I hope it will be given to me. I think the Krems drug store corner is the most dangerous for automobile traffic of any corner in the United States. That there have not been a lot of accidents testifies to the care of Stevens Point drivers. But if the corners remain as they are it will not always be possible to avoid accidents and congestion of traffic will grow as the city grows. "The streets are narrow. It is probably too late to do anything about that. We can do a good deal by rounding the curbs on the Main street corners."

Leaves Enough Room

The engineer estimated that he could cut off from five to six feet at the Krems corner and still leave as much walking space as there is along either street. He simply wanted to get rid of the square corners, now not much used for walking but principally occupied as standing places for those who meet and talk.

Standing on the Main street corner with the engineer today, it was noticed that every large car coming around the Krems corner from Main street into the avenue passed the center line of the avenue, blocking traffic and making it possible that a northbound car run into it.

Cost Not Large

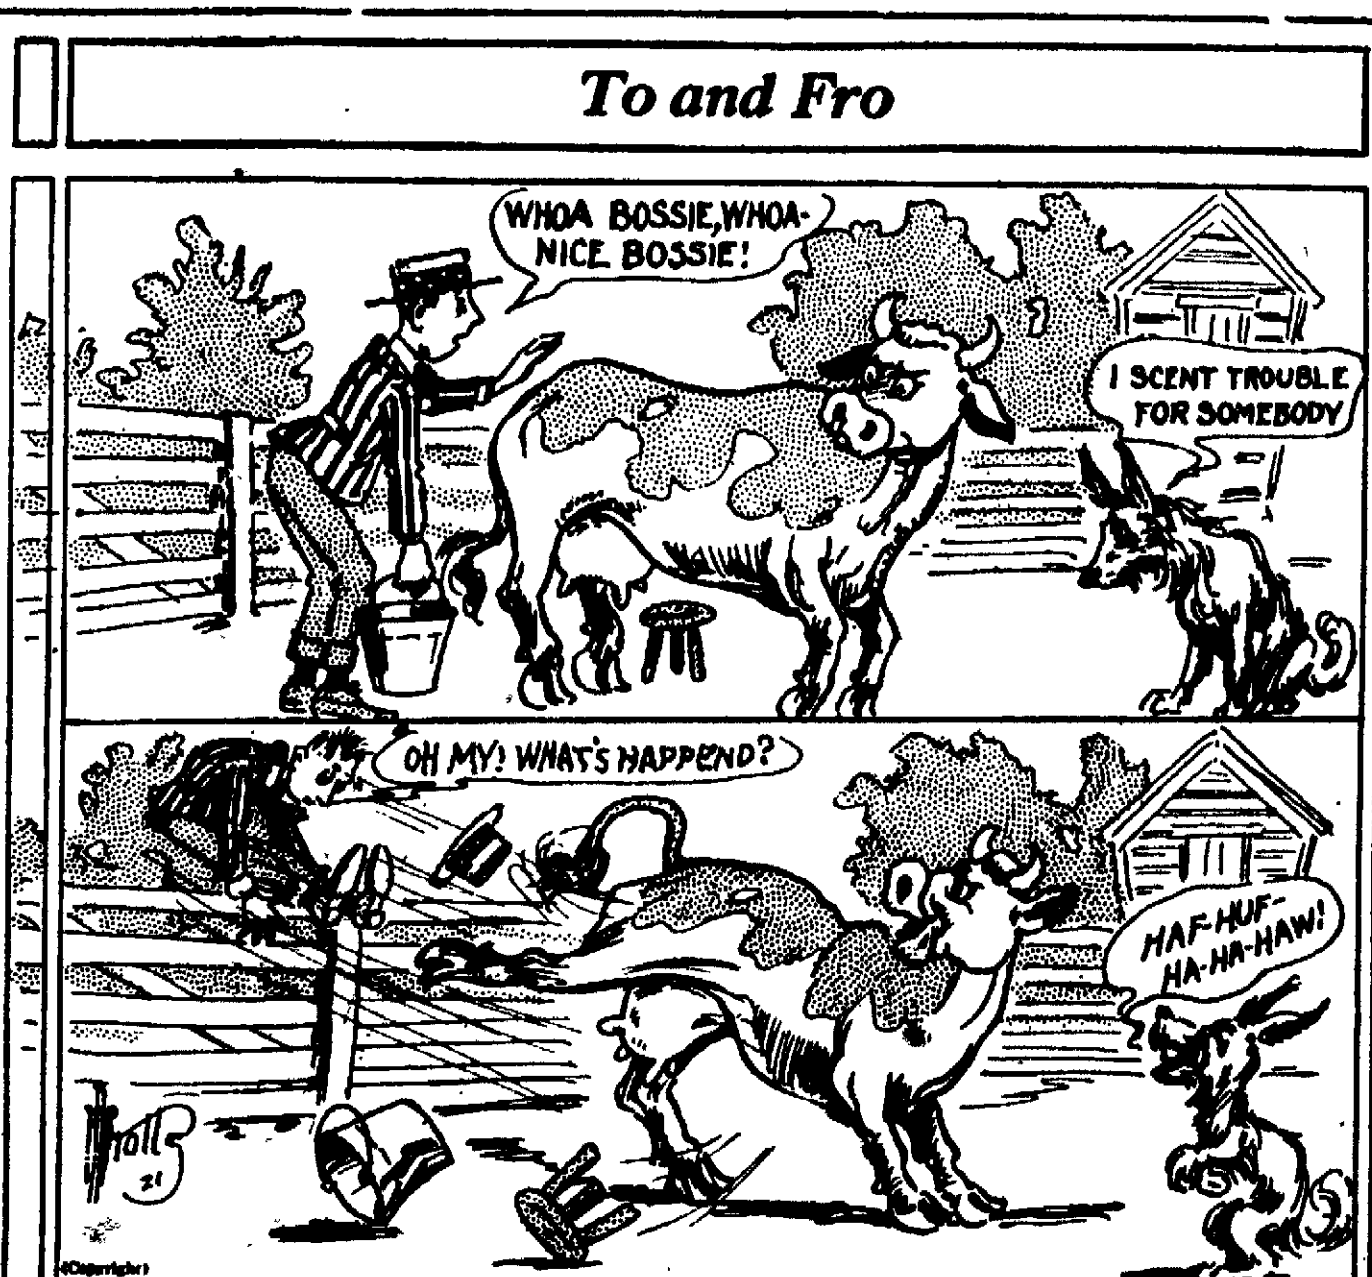

Colonel Reichardt says the two corners on Main street and Strong's avenue might be put in for $50 and possibly the cost might run up to $100. It would be a good investment, he said, at $1,000. He is anxious that authority be given for it now while he can have the work done to the best advantage.

No change will be necessary in the grade of the street. At the Krems and Atwell corners a pipe will be run back from the curb to the manhole which will remain where it is. The Chamber of Commerce has called attention to the narrow streets as a handicap to the city's growth, and cutting off of superfluous space at the corners of the walks will help, at a slight expense, the engineer says, to accomplish one of the chamber's objectives.

WOMAN SEEKING DIVORCE

ASKS DEED BE SET ASIDE

A hearing in a divorce action instituted by Anastasia Mrochinski vs. Albert Mrochinski, residents of the town of Stockton, was held in circuit court here Saturday. Mrs. Mrochinski, in connection with her suit for divorce, seeks to have set aside a conveyance executed at the time of her marriage 10 years ago, under which Mr. Mrochinski received a half interest in a farm owned by her. Pending further proceedings, the plaintiff was ordered to pay the defendant $150 and the defendant was granted the right to visit his children.

ROBBER SUSPECTS TAKEN TO WABENO

Impossible to Identify Either of Them as the Appleton Bank Robber

Green Bay, Wis., Aug. 23.—Lawrence Lesperance and Chalmers Yaegers, charged with Willis Lesperance and "Frenchie" Yaegers with the Wabeno state bank robbery in which $32,000 in loot was procured, were taken from Crandon to Wabeno today for identification by the Wabeno bank employees. The two alleged bandits were removed from the Crandon jail under heavy guard, and were expected to reach Wabeno this afternoon. They will be charged with the actual robbery of the Wabeno bank, regardless of whether or not Wabeno officials can identify them. Sheriff Robert Miller, Forest county, said.

Arraignment of the men will be made Wednesday and the bail recommended by the District Attorney will be $20,000.

All but $60 of the loot is intact, hidden in grain sacks, according to E. P. Cunningham, special agent of the Wisconsin Bankers' association, whose work brought about the capture of the gang.

The prisoners will not say where the loot is hidden, but officials believed they are withholding this information for the purpose of "trading" for a lighter sentence.

Neither Lesperance nor Yaegers could be identified as the lone bandit who held up the Outagamie State bank at Appleton and escaped with $9,000 in loot. Authorities are confident one of the men robbed the Appleton bank, despite the lack of positive evidence. The loot filled grain sacks, when found, will bear out this belief, officials said.

TEN DAYS IN JAIL FOR POINTING GUN

CHIEF Godin, Llawood, to Serve Sentence in Lieu of Fine for Menacing Act

Chief Godin, Llawood, charged with unlawfully pointing and aiming a gun at W. R. Parland, a fellow townsman, was adjudged guilty by Justice G. L. Park following trial Tuesday forenoon and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs or to spend 10 days in the county jail. He chose to serve the jail term.

Godin, so the evidence brought out, went to Parland's farm on August 4 and reopened an old argument over Godin's liability under the draft. It was said he threatened to shoot Parland, and the evidence showed that he did aim a shotgun at him. Six witnesses were called by the state, while Godin's own testimony was all that was presented in behalf of the defense. The defendant declared he did not aim the gun at Parland until the latter had started to raise a pitchfork. Godin was given a light sentence because of the fact that he had already served 12 days in the county jail in default of bail.

PICNIC AT SUNSET

Many Attend Outing of Rotarians at Camp Monday

Favored with beautiful weather, the annual picnic of the Stevens Point Rotary club, held Monday afternoon at Boy Scout camp at Sunset lake, had a large attendance.

Seventy-six people, Rotarians, their wives and families, attended the outing. Two out-of-town guests were present, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Potts of Waukesha, who came with Mr. and Mrs. John F. Sims. The majority of the picnicers arrived at the camp at about 2:30 in the afternoon and remained until 8. Luncheon was served in the mess hall at the camp at 5:30. The afternoon was spent just as the individuals themselves desired. Many enjoyed trips on the lake.

HEARTEL IS MANAGER OF COMBINED MILLS

Stevens Point Man Heads Consolidation of Important State Industries

Carl F. Hartel, for several years in charge of the Jackson Milling company interests in this city, has been selected as general manager of the Grand Rapids and Jackson Milling companies, a merger of which concern is now being completed.

The new consolidation will be known as the Jackson Milling company, with general offices at Wisconsin Rapids. The company will be capitalized at $150,000 and will operate mills at Wisconsin Rapids, Stevens Point, Amherst, Nelsonville, Neokosa, Sparta, Tomah and New London. Daily capacity of the combined plants is 300 barrels of wheat flour, 300 barrels of rye flour and 75 tons of mixed feeds. They also manufacture quantities of cereals, including family corn meal, graham, pure buckwheat, specially prepared and self-rising wheat, and buckwheat pancake flour.

The history of the Jackson Milling Co. dates back a good many years. The company was first under the name of Trow, Coleman & company, about 1860. The name of the concern was changed to Coleman, Jackson & company, when A. S. Trow sold his interests to J. D. Witter. The other members of the firm were S. B. Coleman and D. J. Jackson. About 1887 the concern changed its name to the Jackson Milling company and continued to operate the local and Wisconsin Rapids mills until 1901, when the Witters and J. P. Horton took over the Wisconsin Rapids mill and its separate branches at Tomah, Sparta and New Lisbon.

Mr. Hartel has been with the Jackson Milling Co. for nearly 30 years and is a practical miller. Lucy Horton, selected as assistant general manager, has been with the Grand Rapids Milling company since 1904 and held several positions until 1916, when at the death of his father, John P. Horton, he became general manager. Since that time the company has grown and a new station at Nelsonville has been added.

GRAPES TO DEMAND RECORD HIGH PRICE

Business Effect of Sheet Storm to be Reflected in Market Conditions

Paw Paw, Mich., Aug. 23.—Despite the fact Americans are turning their back on their national drink—grape juice—Michigan farmers will receive the highest prices in history for their grapes this fall.

Leo E. Prater, treasurer of the National Grape Growers' association, predicted today that Michigan grapes would bring an average price of $150 a ton, with a minimum of at least $200, compared with a $90 average last year and a maximum of $114. Ten years ago they brought $20 a ton.

The reason for the increased prices was a late spring sheet storm, which reduced the crop to about 25 per cent of normal. Southwestern Michigan will ship not more than 1,500 carloads of grapes this year, averaging perhaps 20 tons to the car.

Grape juice factories, which ordinarily take about a third of the output will not buy a pound of grapes this year. They have an enormous surplus on hand as a result of the public's refusal to pay the high price for grape juice at soda fountains, in comparison with other soft drinks, because of the extra ad valorem tax on the beverage. An effort will be made to induce congress to eliminate this tax.

CHURCH WORKING FOR IRISH PEACE

Message Delivered to De Valera, While Guarded, Said to Favor Friendly Settlement

Dublin, Aug. 23.—The Sinn Fein council of leaders of local organizations throughout Ireland, which have been forbidden by the British government to meet here, are considering a reply to Lloyd George's proposal and the part of military authorities.

The secret of the message from the highest authority of the Catholic church, delivered to President De Valera yesterday by the Bishop of Gormore, was guarded in inner Sinn Fein circles today. No hints of its contents nor source could be gathered.

Throughout Ireland today the popular belief was that the Sinn Fein cabinet had already in secret conferences over the week-end, determined upon its reply to Lloyd George's proposal and that parliament meeting again in secret session today, was being asked to approve the Irish answer. Reported intervention of the archbishops tightened the hope that the decision had been for peace.

AUTO DRIVER DRAWS FINE

Frank Platoff, arraigned before Justice G. L. Park Monday, pleaded guilty to a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated. He was assessed a fine of $10 and costs, amounting in all to $17.00.

WANT HIM HERE AT M. E. CHURCH PASTOR TO GO

Rev. G. M. Calhoun To Be Sent to New Field After Wonderful Work Here

At the close of five years of remarkable successful work as pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, Rev. G. M. Calhoun, although unanimously invited to return, will not be in Stevens Point the next conference year. He is to be transferred to another and larger charge by wish of Bishop Charles Bayard Mitchell. Pending formal action by the Wisconsin conference, which Mr. Calhoun leaves, and another conference in the bishop's jurisdiction to which he goes, the name of the new charge is not to be published. It is a more responsible one than any in the Wisconsin conference except First church at Milwaukee and will mean an increase of more than $1,000 in salary.

Announcement that this charge would be "open" at the annual conference at Sheboygan in September was made at the fourth quarterly conference of the congregation Monday night by Rev. T. D. Williams, district superintendent, who presided. When the matter of a pastor for the next year came up, a resolution was passed by hearty and unanimous vote, asking that Mr. Calhoun be returned. The district superintendent said, however, that the bishop needed Mr. Calhoun in a larger church and that, in justice to the minister himself and the needs of the church in general, Stevens Point would have to give him up. At the Sheboygan conference it will be announced that Rev. Mr. Calhoun has been transferred to another conference, and the conference to which he will be assigned will take action in October, ratifying the bishop's choice. The intervening month will be taken by Mr. Calhoun as a vacation. It is expected that the family will move early in September to permit the children to enter school at the beginning of the term in their new home.

None knows yet who the new pastor at St. Paul's will be, but the district superintendent promised to find a capable man with whom the congregation would be well pleased.

A resolution citing the growth of the church under the present pastor was adopted. A significant item in benevolences which in 1916 were $230 for all recognized purposes, and in 1920 had grown to $2,244. In the past year the church has raised almost $7,000 for all purposes.

The resolution follows:

"Whereas, during the pastorate of Rev. G. M. Calhoun of the Saint Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, Stevens Point, Wisconsin, from 1916 to 1921, a period of five years, there has been added to the church membership 317 new members. This is the most remarkable growth of the church for any five year period in its history. In 1916 when Brother Calhoun took the charge the benevolences amounted to $230. In 1920 the benevolences increased to $2,244.00 or 880 per cent which shows that the church has been operating along progressive and successful lines under the able direction of the pastor. Another item of consequence was the church indebtedness which was cleared up during this period. In fact, every department of the church has shown marked growth and development.

"Therefore, be it resolved that the quarterly conference of Saint Paul's Methodist church extend to Brother and Sister Calhoun a token of appreciation and thanks for these excellent achievements.

"Further, resolved, that a copy of this resolution be spread upon the official records of the church, printed in the city papers and a copy forwarded to our church papers for publication."

The Best Fair

"This is the best fair we have yet had," said a farmer to the Journal on Friday. "The stock exhibits are bigger and contain some very fine cattle and sheep."

"This is the best fair," said a horseman. "With the added entry money we have had better horses and better races. The race fans agreed with that statement and testify to the higher class of race events this year."

"This is the best fair," said the amusement seekers. "The shows were more interesting and there were more of them."

"This is the best fair," said the man who likes to take a chance. "More games were going on up town. I staked $5 and won $200."

"This is the best fair," say automobile drivers. "We can get into Stevens Point on better roads and reach the fair on better streets."

"This is the best fair," said those who came to see the town. "Stevens Point is certainly forging ahead."

For various reasons the fair was liked. It was a gay and happy week, despite the rain. It takes variety to make a fair. We can't say much for gambling as a feature except that those who played were generally those who were looking for it and who could not be denied their favorite sport by any authority. Fortunately it was not general, and perhaps next year, though we are not sure of that, those who follow the fair and our own local gambling habits may be persuaded to get along without it.

The House Taxation Bill

The house of representatives has finally passed the new taxation bill containing a number of important changes from the present law.

Before the time set for the vote, Representative Mondell, Republican leader, delivered a prepared address praising the tax bill and saying it remained for a later congress to fully revise the tax schedules "when we shall have passed beyond the shadow of the war overhead." "In this measure we have relieved the burden where it is most clearly of an emergency character," he said, "and relieved it and lightened it for the benefit of every class and condition in the nation. We have lifted rather than shifted the more oppressive and annoying of the war taxes. We have kept faith, and while some will rail against the measure for purely partisan purposes, it will receive the commendation of the great body of the American people."

Representative Connolly, Democrat, Texas, arose to ask the republican leader to show him the pledge in the Republican platform for the relieving of the taxes on men of large incomes. Statements by Messrs Mondell and Connolly represent the extreme opposing partisan views. There is something in what each says, and neither is quite accurate. The bill does lift the tax from men of large incomes. It stops the increase in the surtax at 32 per cent, and after an income reaches $65,000 the surtax remains at 32 per cent, amounting with the normal tax of eight per cent to 40 per cent in all, whereas the old combined surtax and normal tax ran up to 77 per cent. Under the old law the total income tax on an income of $1,000,000 was $703,150. Under the new law it will be $433,150. In excess profit taxes a corporation making unusually large earnings paid as high as 40 per cent tax. Under the new law it will pay 12 1/2 per cent. The new law certainly relieves men and corporations with large incomes.

On the other hand it relieves the poor man too. It raises the exemption on married men to $2,500 and on children from $200 to $400. It adds an exemption of $1,100 and reduces the income tax by $40 on men of moderate incomes. Also it cuts off the soft drink tax which helps the poor man, and cuts off the freight tax, which ought to help him, whether it actually does or not.

The bill is much better than the propositions first made this spring, and probably is on the whole better all around than the old law. It now goes to the senate which since the adoption of the seventeenth amendment has become a popular body and where there is hope it may be further improved. The way to get a good law will be for the public to watch it sharply. It will be better for Republican newspapers and Republican leaders to amend and improve it as much as they can now instead of taking it without change and trying to explain it later on. That it is still susceptible of improvement is shown by the doubtful attitude of Wisconsin Republican congressmen toward it, seven voting in its favor and four for its rejection.

—The position occupied by Ambassador Harvey at the conference of the allied supreme council demands a man of extraordinary tact. The representatives of each of the other powers are exerting themselves to curry favor with Mr. Harvey, in the belief that he will so far depart from his role of observer as to offer suggestions in the course of the proceedings, and perhaps act as arbitrator if the occasion arises. There need be no fear but that Mr. Harvey will conduct himself precisely as an American diplomat should. He is immune to the blandishments of false foreign friends, but dictates his action under all conditions according to what will best serve the interests of America.

BIG POTATO PRICES PROSPECT THIS FALL

That is the Opinion of Farm Leaders and Dealers Following Crop Report

Stevens Point people who do not raise their own potatoes as well as other consumers of the delectable "spud" in the United States, will probably be forced to pay prices approaching, or exceeding the highest in the history of the country for potatoes this year.

That is the opinion of farm leaders and dealers following the government crop report which showed a cut in the August potato crop estimate of $1,000,000.

The estimated crop for the United States this year is 316,000,000, one of the lowest figures on record for August. Last year's production was 430,458,000 bushels and the five year average 371,283,000 bushels.

September and October estimates may raise the 1921 estimate but is pointed out that, according to past records, it is much more likely to reduce it.

Potatoes two years ago, with a yield much in excess of the forecasted 316,000,000, cost the consumer as high as $4 and $5 a bushel. Last year the excessive yield reduced prices to the consumer and rendered much of the crop on the farm valueless.

Farmers, it is held, are certain this year to obtain a big price for their crop, but it is pointed out that the yield has been so greatly reduced by drouth and heat, with large acreages abandoned in many territories, that only in local spots where normal conditions have prevailed, will the growers benefit.

WE LOSE $1,875,000 FEDERAL ROAD CASH

Our Motto Beginning With 1923 is to be Backward, Says Frank Cannon

Madison, Wis., Aug. 22.—Wisconsin will lose $1,875,000, to be offered by the federal government for road improvement work because the 1921 legislature failed to appropriate sufficient money for the state highway commission to meet that allotment with a similar sum, according to F. A. Cannon, secretary of the Good Roads association of Wisconsin.

"The passage of the $75,000,000 federal aid road bill in the senate means that the measure will be voted upon favorably in the house," Cannon said. "A bill slightly differing from the senate measure has already passed the house. Wisconsin's share of the $75,000,000 yearly federal aid will be $1,875,000. There are no funds for the 1923 work or to meet the federal aid just appropriated. It will be too late to vote these funds in the 1923 legislature and hence no federal aid work will be done in the state that year," Cannon said.

Cannon said the shortage of funds would not only prevent 1923 federal aid for road work but would disintegrate the engineering force of the state. "Wisconsin's motto in road work has been forward. Beginning in 1923, it will be backward. These are the facts in the case," he said.

MR. AND MRS. BUCHAN HERE

Mr. and Mrs. George Buchan of Milwaukee spent several days at the home of the lady's brother, A. T. Johnson, and among other local relatives. They were accompanied by two little daughters of V. L. Hall, chief clerk in the Soo line general agent's office. Mr. Hall came up Saturday and all the visitors returned home the next afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Buchan spent nearly two weeks on a trip through Canada and among the thousand islands of the St. Lawrence river. The latter journey is filled with scenes of wondrous beauty and was fully enjoyed by the Milwaukeeans.

LOCALS BEATEN AT MARSHFIELD IN HOT COMBAT

Breaks In Stevens Point Defense Gives Cheesemakers Victory

The people of Marshfield, Wood county's metropolis, went on a joyous Sunday, when their Wisconsin Valley leaguers copped a hair-raising, melodramatic game of baseball from Stevens Point, 6 to 4. As a result of the game Stevens Point and Marshfield are now tied for the league leadership.

There was more excitement jammed into those nine rounds of pastime than is ordinarily seen in a half-dozen diamond contests, and a crowd said to have numbered more than 3,000 fans, including scores from Stevens Point, sat spellbound through the fracas.

The excitement reached its highest pitch in the last half of the ninth, when, with the score tied at four each, Marshfield grabbed the victory after two men had been retired and two more who should have been out went safe through stupid playing by members of the Stevens Point team.

The Sad Finish

Works, Marshfield's heavy hitter, about whom more will be said as the story proceeds, was first up for Marshfield in the ninth and struck out on three pitched balls. Wright followed with a fly to short right field. Sid Eagleburger misjudged the ball and instead of getting it in the air waited for it to come to him. H. Braem came next and flied to Simmons. Reeths, after having two strikes called on him, hoisted a short fly to left center and while Snow and Gustin debated as to who should catch it, the ball fell safe. Reeths went to second when Braem made a break to tear home from third. Leahy was next in the batting order and lifted a short fly over first base, just inside the foul line, scoring Braem and Reeths and ending the game.

Benton and Works Star

Benton of Stevens Point and Works of Marshfield, both former big leaguers, were the shining stars of the game. Benton, with the score 4 to 2 in favor of Marshfield, slammed the ball into deep center field in the eighth inning, for three bases, scoring Groh, who had singled. With the two men out Benton pulled some big league stuff by stealing home while Pitcher Noel was winding up, tying the count. Benton slid into the home plate and the decision was close, but was called safe by Umpire Dionne of Wausau, much to the disappointment of the Marshfield team and fans.

Works Hits Homer

Works got into the limelight in the sixth inning, when, with the score standing at two each, he laced out a hit far into right center for a home run, scoring a man ahead of him. Marshfield entered the sixth without a score, while Stevens Point had two. Pitcher Noel hit a single to right center and went to third when a grounder from F. Braem's bat went through McKearney. Stevens Point first baseman, Johnson doubled over Left Fielder Simmons' head. Noel and F. Braem scoring. At this point Works inserted his four-base clout, the ball bounding over the fence onto the race track. Wright was out on a fly to Simmons and H. Braem was retired. Gustin to McKearney.

Locals Score Early

Stevens Point's first score was registered in the second inning. Simmons opened the round by fanning. Snow singled and crossed the platter when Wloszynski's drive was missed by Shortstop Reeths. Stevens Point scored again in the fifth, when Wloszynski doubled, was sacrificed to third by Gustin and came home on a hit by Normoye.

The fielding of Simmons, Stevens Point left fielder, was the defensive feature of the game. Simmons gobbled up six flies, some of his catches being of the sensational variety.

MAKE LONG AUTO TRIP AGED RESIDENT IS REMOVED BY DEATH

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Blood and Family

Motor to Grand Forks, N. Dak. Fine roads and excellent camping facilities and attention, are reported by Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Blood and daughter, Gladys, and son, Donald, who have returned to the city after an auto trip to Grand Forks, N. Dak., and points in Minnesota and northern Michigan.

The Bloods visited at the home of Mrs. Blood's sister, Mrs. Fred Gillie, in Minneapolis and her brother, Oscar Gilbertson, at Grand Forks. Only short stays were made at Grand Forks and Minneapolis. Going through Grand Rapids, Minn., Mr. Blood visited for a short time with Will Maddy, brother of Frank Maddy of this city. Will Maddy is a former resident of Stevens Point. On their return they touched at Duluth, Ironwood, Hurley and Ashland.

Wonderful roads were reported all the way by Mr. Blood, who says he found but one bad stretch of road in all his trip, that being in Minnesota and for but a comparatively short distance.

WISCONSIN CATTLE FOR OKLAHOMA LAND

Movement to Turn Cotton Plantations Into Dairy Farms to Aford a New Market

Wisconsin farmers, breeders of pure bred cattle, will, within another two years, reap the benefit of a project launched in Oklahoma and backed by 89 per cent of the banks of that state, which is expected to turn many of the southern cotton plantations into huge dairy farms, according to Eugene Arnett of Oklahoma City, who was a visitor in Milwaukee on Tuesday.

"The department of agriculture, the county agents and the banks of the state will all cooperate in the movement," Mr. Arnett said. "They will urge the farmer to develop his land for dairying; advise him what crops to grow for raising cattle and at such time as the farmer has prepared himself to handle the cattle the banks will finance the purchase."

"Cattle will be purchased in Wisconsin and other nearby states, and prices ranging from 50 to 200 per cent higher than those paid in the markets will be paid for the cattle the southern farmers want."

"We are not in the market for pure bred stock at the present time, and will not be for another year, but it is none too soon to call attention of Wisconsin farmers to the market we will give them by fall in 1922. We are not coming up here to pay fancy prices to large breeders, but to buy surplus pure bred animals from the man with the small herd."

Mr. Arnett explained that the southern farmer will want cattle at least two years old, stating that it will not be advisable to transfer cattle younger than that to the southern climates. An appraiser will be named to appraise the stock wanted in Wisconsin, and when purchases are made they will be made in such way that carload lots can be shipped to the south.

"The cost of selling this stock will be about 1 per cent—about the same that the farmer incurs in selling to the stockyards," Mr. Arnett said. "And the prices which will be paid will range from 50 to 200 per cent more than is paid in the markets."

WOMAN MOONSHINER IS ASSESSED FINE

Widow Given Choice of Paying $100 and Costs or Serving 90-Day Jail Sentence

Mrs. Jessie Firkus, who went into the moonshiner manufacturing business to earn money to support herself and seven fatherless children, was sentenced by Circuit Judge Park Saturday to pay a fine of $100 and costs, with the alternative of serving 90 days in the county jail.

Mrs. Firkus, who is about 35 years of age and has been receiving aid from the city, resides at 217 Wood Street. Her home was raided on August 6 and a moonshine still in full operation was confiscated. She was charged with a violation of the Severe prohibition enforcement act and pleaded guilty in justice court. On being arraigned before Judge Park in circuit court she reiterated her plea of guilt.

REMAINS OF MRS. GATES INTERRED ON SUNDAY

The funeral of the late Mrs. A. L. Gates was conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her son, D. F. Gates, in Buena Vista. Rev. J. T. Fish, assisted by his mother, Mrs. S. H. Fish, of Kansas City, Kas., officiated. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Liberty Corners. The pallbearers were George Fletcher, Louis Wentworth, Lyman Precount, William O'Keefe, George Newby and Charles Eckels.

DRAINAGE REPORT ACCEPTED

The annual report of the Portage County Drainage district commissioners was presented to Circuit Judge B. B. Park this morning and, with the assessment for repairs, confirmed.

REMAINS OF MRS. GATES INTERRED ON SUNDAY

The funeral of the late Mrs. A. L. Gates was conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of her son, D. F. Gates, in Buena Vista. Rev. J. T. Fish, assisted by his mother, Mrs. S. H. Fish, of Kansas City, Kas., officiated. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Liberty Corners. The pallbearers were George Fletcher, Louis Wentworth, Lyman Precount, William O'Keefe, George Newby and Charles Eckels.

DRAINAGE REPORT ACCEPTED

The annual report of the Portage County Drainage district commissioners was presented to Circuit Judge B. B. Park this morning and, with the assessment for repairs, confirmed.

Gates had been seriously ill. She had been in poor health for nearly a year previous to this time.

She is survived by her husband and one son, D. F. Gates, who is a resident of Buena Vista, a brother, Thomas Kimbell of Osgood City, Kan., and three grandchildren, Harold, Merl and Charles Gates.

The funeral was held Sunday afternoon at the home of her late son in Buena Vista, burial following in the Buena Vista cemetery.

Mrs. Gates, whose maiden name was Nellie Kimbell, was born in Oxford, England, June 5, 1847, and she was therefore 74 years, two months and 13 days of age at the time of her death. When seven years old, with her parents, she came to the United States, and making her home in Buena Vista, Ill., lived there until December, 1870, when she was married to A. L. Gates.

Immediately following her marriage to Mr. Gates, they came to Portage county, settling on a farm in Buena Vista. They lived in Buena Vista until 20 years ago, when they moved to their home in Stevens Point, where residence has since been maintained.

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarettey aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

MR. JOHN DOE

Dear Sir:

You never thought much about it, did you? We mean that home of yours. Not many men do. That wife of yours is pretty much like all the rest of them in this matter. That is, they like to have a pretty, cozy little place called home. They like to have their friends and neighbors call. They enjoy the long winter days and evenings there. She may not have said much to you about the furniture, but she has thought lots about it. Get acquainted with us, we can help you..

FARMER KILLED BY CRAZY FOE NEAR MOSINEE

Carl Wensauer, Moon Bachelor, Found Dead in Chair; Suspect Confesses

Carl Wensauer, bachelor farmer living out from Mosinee, near Moon, was found dead in his chair Tuesday with his head blown off. Today the mystery was explained when Jake Kafmetki, hermit and neighbor of Wensauer, confessed to Sheriff Fred Schroeder and District Attorney George Leicht at Wausau that he had committed the murder.

Kafmetki fired a charge of buckshot at Wensauer, as the latter was seated in a rocking chair reading a newspaper Monday night. The gun was fired through a window, Kafmetki told Sheriff Schroeder, with the barrel resting on the window sill, in order to make sure of the aim.

Did It For Revenge
Revenge was the motive for the crime. Kafmetki formerly was an inmate of an insane hospital. He believed Wensauer had deprived him of a portion of his farm.

Wensauer's body was discovered Tuesday night and Kafmetki was taken into custody Wednesday as a suspect. Circumstantial evidence indicated that he had committed the crime.

A team of horses and a Ford car, missing from the Wensauer place, were found Wednesday in a pasture near the Kafmetki farm.

Suspected by Neighbors
Neighbors had observed Kafmetki using the Ford. They knew he had not been on speaking terms with Wensauer and the incident was immediately recalled when the body was found.

The body of Wensauer was discovered by Stanley Volasek, a neighbor, who found it sitting in a chair. The feet were crossed and the head had fallen forward. The head, face and clothing were covered with blood. A charge of fine shot was found to have entered the head at and above the right eye. Further investigation showed that the shot had come from a rear porch as a small piece of window casing had been carried away by the charge and the window pane was shattered.

Was Peaceable
Wensauer had lived in the community where he was murdered for many years, possibly 25. He had a nice farm, well taken care of, and some stock. While not wealthy, he was considered in fair circumstances. Neighbors say he was peaceable and hard working.

The murder of Wensauer recalls a rather sensational case which occupied the attention of the municipal and circuit courts at Wausau two years ago. A Mr. and Mrs. George Brown lived near the Wensauer home and in June, 1912, Brown deserted his wife and left her to support three minor children.

Take Children Away
In 1914 the children were taken from the mother and sent to the state school at Sparta, the court finding that she was an unfit person to have their custody. Mrs. Brown had taken a position as housekeeper for Wensauer and in the fall of 1913 Wensauer was arrested because of the relations between himself and Mrs. Brown. Wensauer was frank in admitting his guilt in circuit court and was ordered to pay $20 a month for the support of his illegitimate children, and he gave a bond of $500 to the town of Bergen to guarantee that the obligation would be fulfilled.

The children were sent to the Sparta state school, where they died within a short time and a court order released Wensauer from the obligation in July, 1919. Mrs. Brown was examined and found to be mentally weak and was sent to the home for the feeble-minded at Chippewa Falls and is reported to have died there.

Brown was last heard of at New London, where he is said to have been about ten years ago.

INJURIES ARE FATAL

Man Hurt in Auto Accident Dies at Wisconsin Rapids

Raymond W. Bredt of Algoma, who was injured in an automobile accident on the Stevens Point-Wisconsin Rapids road, a short distance beyond the Portage county line, early Sunday morning, died on Wednesday at River View hospital, Wisconsin Rapids. Bredt suffered a broken back, a crushed chest and internal injuries when the roadster he was driving turned turtle.

Bredt's wife and son, Martin, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Bredt of Rice Lake, and his brother, Frank, were with him during his last hours. Two sisters also survive.

Mr. Bredt made his headquarters in Wisconsin Rapids for several months, being a salesman for an Oshkosh concern. He was 29 years of age.

The funeral was held at Rice Lake.

CONSULTS PHYSICIANS
S. J. Sobora, cashier of the Junction State bank at Junction City, came down Monday morning to consult local physicians in reference to his four-year-old son, who has infantile paralysis. The boy's legs are affected and he is confined to bed.

BIG CROWD AT PICNIC

County Agent Clark Speaks at Rosholt Gathering

Rosholt, Wis., Aug. 17.—A large crowd of farmers and Rosholt people attended the farmers'-merchants' harvest picnic held here on Monday. Between 400 and 500 people attended.

Prof. R. A. Moore of the University of Wisconsin was the principal speaker of the day. He gave a talk on the "Breeding and Dissemination of Pedigreed Seed in Wisconsin." W. W. Clark, Portage county agricultural agent, also talked. His topic was "The Value of Community Effort."

A good exhibit of soy bean hay was prepared, and in an exhibit of farmers' products, judged by Prof. Moore, several prizes were awarded, donated by Rosholt merchants.

SKULL FRACTURED IN 25-FOOT FALL FROM BARN ROOF

Andrew Slorsorek In Serious Condition at Hospital In City

(From Tuesday's Daily.)
Andrew Slorsorek, town of Carson, is at St. Michael's hospital with a fractured skull and injured internally, the result of a 25-foot fall to a concrete driveway from a barn, which is building at the A. F. Grubba farm near the "boom house" at 10:40 o'clock this morning.

The man, past 50, was working on the roof of a big, new barn, now being constructed on the Grubba farm. He was working with Leo Grubba, taking off footholds on the roof, placed there while it was being shingled. He lost his footing while standing on the west "hip" of the building, and slipped down the roof and over the edge.

Lands on Back
He struck the staging on the side of the building as he was going down, and was whirled to a concrete driveway below. Striking on his back, his skull was fractured when it was snapped back and struck the driveway.

A. R. Mularkey of the G. A. Gullikson company, happening past the barn on a trip back to the city after a drive to Mill Creek, rushed to the man's assistance, and turned him over. Blood gushed from a wound in Slorsorek's head as he did so.

Rushed to Hospital
The injured man was rushed to St. Michael's hospital here in a car, and physicians were summoned. This afternoon a telephone call to the hospital by the Journal found Slorsorek in a very serious condition.

The injured man is married, but his wife is living in Poland. He has a brother living on a farm in Carson, who was at his bedside at the hospital this afternoon. Slorsorek had been employed at the Grubba farm for the past few months.

RUSSELL SCIDMORE IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Former Resident and Native of Stevens Point Passes Away at Mineral Point

Russell D. Scidmore, born in Stevens Point and for many years a resident of this city, died at Mineral Point on August 3, according to a clipping from the Mineral Point Tribune, received by the Journal.

Following is the clipping:
"Russell D. Scidmore, who for the past ten years had been in the employ of the Mineral Point and Northern railway company, after several months of weakening, yielded to the final summons Wednesday night, August 3, 1921. To him death was not a struggle but a gentle falling asleep."

"Russell Dean Scidmore was born at Stevens Point, Wis., Jan. 7, 1860. In early manhood he succumbed to the lure of the railroading life and followed it until called to eternal rest. Mr. Scidmore possessed a friendly, likable nature and was even tempered always. In July 1916, Mr. Scidmore was united in marriage with Mrs. Annie Benoit of this city and their life together was most happy and congenial. For several years now Mr. Scidmore had lived with a large and abiding faith in Jesus, and in this faith he departed. Besides his grief-stricken wife, his aged mother living at Waukegan, and one sister, Mrs. Chas. Swan of Janesville, and one brother, E. L. Scidmore, of Louisiana, will greatly miss the closing of this cheery life. Funeral services were held from his late home, 104 Commerce St., on Friday afternoon, Rev. A. H. Schoenfeld officiating. Burial was made in Grace land."

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to express our heartfelt thanks and appreciation for the assistance and sympathy extended by neighbors and friends during the illness and after the death of our daughter, Mrs. Verna, also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Behr, and family.

HIRST'S STATEMENT ON HIGHWAY WORK

State Engineer Says Program of New Construction Is Going Ahead Fast

By A. R. HIRST
(State Highway Engineer)
The construction of Wisconsin highways is now proceeding at an unprecedented rate. This is the logical result of the restricted construction program of the last three or four years. There have been considerable unexpended balances thus made available. A large mileage of plans for road work has accumulated. The prevailing economic situation has reduced the price of labor and material, and there is now an adequate supply of both. This conjunction of large funds available and favorable labor and material conditions is what has made possible this large construction program.

This situation is not unexpected; in fact, it was foreseen at the time the advance in labor and materials, due to war conditions, began and the policy of retrenchment then adopted was planned to avoid high costs and difficult conditions then prevailing and to take advantage of the more favorable conditions which it was felt would inevitably result.

As of June 20, 1921, we had under way 310 miles of concrete pavings of which 51 miles were hold-over contracts and 259 miles new contracts. It is believed that the total for the season will be about 325 miles of concrete pavement, about 1,200 miles of roads surfaced with other various kinds of material, probably gravel, and in addition, some six or seven hundred miles of grading, making a total in the neighborhood of 175 construction crews building gravel roads. There are about 60 concrete paving mixers under operation, and they are building concrete roads at the rate of more than three miles per day. The only unfavorable factor is freight rates which continue high, but all of our gravel roads are being built of local materials, and approximately half of the sand and gravel going into the concrete roads, is free from rail shipments. An interesting statement showing the location of these concrete paving operations, is as follows:

FARM BUYING PRESAGES BUSINESS BOOM

Much encouragement is given to the belief that business in general will continue to improve because of the fact that much of the recent increase in the automobile business has come from agricultural communities. The automobile industry, now at 85 per cent of normal, is leading business in general and its experiences point the way for others.

"Up to July 1," says H. M. Jewett, president of the Paice Detroit Motor Car company, "80 per cent of our business was in the cities. But during the past two months there has been a marked increase in the purchase of quality automobiles in the farm market."

"There always was plenty of buying power on the farm, but the farmer was not satisfied on the question of price. Naturally, having seen his products drop rapidly to low price levels he felt that the things he bought should likewise decline. It is not surprising that the farmer was the hardest of all to satisfy on the price question."

"The second price reduction of cars in June satisfied the farmer that such prices for such a product were at bed rock, as they are. In consequence Paige business in the farm market picked up amazingly. Having satisfied the most exacting of all buyers we naturally have reason to feel that the price question is settled to the satisfaction of the buying public, and that they may fill their motoring needs in utmost confidence that there will be no further rapid declines in the automobile market."

BREEDERS TO MEET

Week from Today Annual Picnic of Holstein Breeders to Be Held

The annual picnic of the Portage County Holstein Breeders' association is to be held at the old Amherst fair ground a week from today, which will be Thursday, August 25.

Secretary L. L. Oldham of the Wisconsin Holstein Breeders' association is announced as the principal speaker of the day. W. W. Clark, county agent, is also to talk.

A fine exhibit of Holstein cattle, owned by county breeders, is planned.

Representatives of the six community Holstein clubs of the county will meet on this day to re-organize the county association, under a new plan, whereby directors of the community clubs form the county association.

L. C. BRONSTAD DEAD FUNERAL ON FRIDAY

Former Local Man Succumbs to Attack of Stomach Trouble at Nelsonville

L. C. Bronstad, a former resident of Stevens Point and at one time a state oil inspector, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. L. H. Johnson, at Nelsonville at 3:30 o'clock in the morning of Tuesday, August 16. Mr. Bronstad had been troubled for a number of years with diabetes, but his death was caused by stomach trouble, with which he was afflicted about ten days.

The deceased was about 65 years of age and for many years owned and operated the farm in New Hope which is now the property of Ben Halverson, chairman of that town. He retired from farming about 25 years ago and for the next 15 years or so made his home in Stevens Point. During the past 10 years he resided at Nelsonville.

Mr. Bronstad's wife died in Stevens Point a number of years ago. The daughter, Mrs. Johnson, of Nelsonville, and a son, Adolph Bronstad, survive. A brother of the deceased is also living, his home being at Barron, Wis.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon, with services at 1 o'clock at the Norwegian Lutheran church at Nelsonville. Rev. Mr. Jorgenson officiating. The body was interred in the New Hope Lutheran cemetery beside that of Mr. Bronstad's wife.

FORMER PASTOR HERE CLIMBS MOUNT HOOD

His 77 Years No Drawback to Rev. E. P. Rankin, Who Gains Distinction By Feat

Rev. E. P. Rankin, years ago pastor of the Presbyterian church in Stevens Point, now a resident of Monrovia, Calif., is a mountain climber at the age of 77. He is the oldest man ever to reach the summit of Mount Hood, Ore., according to the following dispatch from Hood River, Ore., of August 4, published in the Portland Oregonian:

"E. P. Rankin, 77 years old, of Monrovia, Cal., is the oldest man ever to reach the summit of Mount Hood. Mr. Rankin, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Lois Rankin, and several other young folk, ascended the peak from Cloud Cap inn yesterday."

"George Miller, guide, today reported that Mr. Rankin reached the two-mile altitude apparently less fatigued by the strenuous exercise than any of his companions."

"Mr. Rankin was a noted athlete during his youth. In 1864-5 he was captain of the Princeton university baseball team."

The clipping was given to the Journal by Marion Tardiff of this city, who received it from his father, J. J. Tardiff, from whose home at Carlton, Ore., Mount Hood can be plainly seen. Within a few days after Mr. Rankin ascended the mountain a small eruption began and has continued ever since, clouds of volcanic ash being thrown up from the crater.

Repair Work Makes It Unlikely There Will Be Any Difficulty Along This Line

The Soo line does not anticipate a shortage of cars this fall. G. R. Huntington of Minneapolis, general manager of the road, informed Secretary F. Leslie Body of the Stevens Point Chamber of Commerce in a letter under date of August 13.

CRACK MOSINEE NINE BEATEN BY MAJESTICS

Clean Hits Bring in Five Runs That Win From American Legion Team

Hitting Stages, the Mosinee American Legion pitcher, for a good collection of safeties, the Majestics of Stevens Point won from the Mosinee nine at Dessert park there Sunday afternoon, 5 to 2.

The Mosinee club was a fast aggregation of players, and everyone of the Majestics' runs was registered on clean hits. The Majestics sewed up the contest in the fourth inning with three tallies. The Mosinee aggregation scored once in the first, and again in the ninth.

Staege, the Mosinee hurler, is said to have worked in the box for the Wausau Lumberjacks.

Score by innings:
Majestics 0 1 0 3 0 1 0 0 5

Batteries: Adams and Washekki; Staege and Wachit.

BANKS PUT IN ALARMS

Detective Says 187 Systems Have Been Installed in Wisconsin

Since the Wabeno bank robbery July 15, 187 burglar alarm systems have been put in Wisconsin banks, according to Edward P. Cunningham, detective for state bankers.

A new device is now being used, he says, which cannot be meddled with by bank robbers, no matter how clever they may be. Any attempt to meddle with the wires sounds a gong on the outside of the building. The object is to give the alarm so a description of the would-be bandits may be obtained, he said.

He declared the bank robbery at Brule, which he investigated, was the work of a high class yegg, whose methods of opening safes is so distinctive his identity is almost certain to be established.

CELEBRATE LABOR DAY

Usual Good Program to Be Presented By Local Unions

An appropriate celebration of Labor day, as usual, will take place at Stevens Point under direction of the local unions.

Committees are now at work on the program, and while they are not sufficiently advanced in the work to be able to announce the details, they wish it stated that they will have a big parade and speakers of ability to entertain the people. The celebration will be at the fair grounds.

MISUSE OF MAIL CHARGED AGAINST GIRL OF FIFTEEN

Stella Wryczka and Father, Living in Hull, Appear in Federal Court

(From Friday's Daily.)
How a 15-year-old Portage county girl, with the aid of an older sister, conducted an alleged fake matrimonial agency and mulcted would-be bridegrooms out of large amounts of money was related in federal court at Superior on Thursday before Judge C. Z. Luse.

The girl who is alleged to have been the moving spirit in the matrimonial agency is Stella Wryczka, who lives in the town of Hull, near the Torun church, on rural route No. 6, out of Stevens Point. Stella and her father Nick Wryczka, aged 70, are under indictment for using an express receipt delivered to their mail box by mistake to obtain 30 jars of fruit consigned to another. Postal authorities in investigating this charge discovered that Stella in 1919, when 15 years of age, conducted a matrimonial agency with the aid of her sister. They obtained a list of prospective bridegrooms from regular matrimonial agencies and began business, it is charged. The romance ended in every case when the prospective bridegroom remitted money sought by the willing but poor recipient of his affections.

Investigation Made
The attention of the postal authorities was first directed to the Wryczka family in 1919, when, it is alleged, the express package incident came up. Postoffice Inspector J. A. Niles was assigned to the case and visited the home of the Wryczkas. In looking about the home, he told the court at Superior on Thursday, he happened to open a drawer in a sideboard, where he found hundreds of letters from various addresses to Stella and her sister. He became suspicious and retained several of the letters. Upon examining the contents he discovered that the missives were in answer to a "matrimonial questionnaire."

Girl Confesses
When confronted with the letters and the information already gained by Inspector Niles, Stella confessed that she and her sister had conducted the matrimonial agency, Mr. Niles stated. It is said that scores of registered letters were received by the girls, including some from Australia, Alaska, Italy and other foreign lands, as well as from the United States. The evidence in the matrimonial episode was offered in connection with that concerning the misdelivered fruit and Judge Luse interrogated the girl for some time in court in order to obtain more information on the new angle in the case. She appeared reticent in court and replied in mumbles to questions. The case was continued to this afternoon to permit of a more thorough investigation of the affair.

Indictment Returned
The offenses for which Stella Wryczka and her father were formally indicted was also committed in 1919. It is charged that Stella received a letter in the mail box at their home and upon opening it found an express receipt telling her to call at the local express office and receive a package. The package, it is said, was called for by the father. It contained 30 large glass containers of fruit. According to Mr. Niles the fruit was given away as Christmas presents to friends and a large quantity of it was eaten by the Wryczkas.

It later developed that the letter had been delivered to Stella by mistake and that the addressee was a woman of a name very similar, who had moved to a place not far distant from the Wryczka home but a week before the arrival of the fruit. This woman, whose name was similar with the exception of the letter "W," asked for the return of the fruit, but this request, it was said, was refused by Stella Wryczka.

Local Men Testify
Among the witnesses called to Superior to testify against the Wryczkas were W. F. Cartmill, carrier on rural route No. 6, and Edwin Molski, city letter carrier, both of Stevens Point. Mr. Molski acted as interpreter for Mr. Niles when the latter visited the Wryczka home.

LIFE TERM GIVEN MOSINEE MURDERER

Kafnetka Pleads Guilty and is Committed to Waupun Prison

Until Death
Jake Kafnetka, rural hermit, arrested Wednesday night for the murder of Carl Wenzauer, bachelor farmer near Mosinee, pleaded guilty on Friday to first degree murder and was sentenced to life in the state penitentiary at Waupun. Judge Alexander H. Reid passed sentence in the Circuit court. Kafnetka told the court that he had suffered recently of severe headaches and that he killed Wenzauer during one of those spells. He expressed regret for his act, but apparently does not suffer any mental anguish.

Eight Hour Day And Time And Half Labor Board Order

Chicago, Aug. 19.—Railroad employees of the country won a smashing victory today in a far reaching decision by the United States railroad labor board.
The decision upheld seven of the important rulings of the national agreement, granted workers while the roads were under federal control, applying to the federated shop crafts.
The principle of the eight hour day was upheld by the board. The ruling grants men time and one-half over time for Sundays and holiday work. The men are also given time and one-half pay for all work over eight hours. The decision upheld important national agreements concerning the hour and the working conditions of the workers, while they were on the road, in yards and in terminals.
Although the decision was considered one of the greatest victories ever won by railroad unions, a dissenting opinion from the majority statement was filed by A. O. Wharton, labor member of the board.

MRS. COPPS' SISTER DIES AT MENOMINEE

Local People Return Home After Attending the Funeral Services

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Copps, their son, Fred, and his son, Chandler, returned home Thursday afternoon from Menominee, Mich., where they attended the funeral of Mrs. E. M. Copps' sister, Mrs. William Holmes, who died at Menominee Sunday morning.

Miss Leila Chandler of this city, also a sister, had been at Menominee during the past summer months caring for the late Mrs. Holmes and is still at Menominee.

Mrs. Holmes' death was caused by the infirmities incident to her advanced age, she being 84 years old. The funeral was held at her late home at Menominee Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, burial following in a cemetery in that city.

Although Mrs. Holmes never lived in Stevens Point, she was well known here, having visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. Copps, many times. Herbert Bowdish, formerly of this city, who married a daughter of Mrs. Holmes, is well known here. Mr. and Mrs. Bowdish now make their home in Menominee.
Besides Mrs. Copps and Miss Leila Chandler, Miss Helen Chandler, a sister, who resides in Menominee, also survives. The following children survive: William, Guy, Arthur, Ray and Mrs. Herbert Bowdish, all of Menominee.

The late Mrs. W. C. Huff of this city, who died at Marshfield a year ago, was also a sister of the late Mrs. Holmes.

RED CROSS SERVICE POPULAR AT FAIR

Rest Tent a Busy Place on Thursday When Hundreds are Given Attention

The Red Cross rest tent for women and children at the fair grounds, in charge of Miss Mary Hanley, county Red Cross nurse, and Miss Ruth Marlow, city nurse, was crowded to capacity all day Thursday.
"We did the best we could with the facilities available, but we were disappointed in not being able to serve the many more who were unable to find room in our tent," said Miss Hanley to the Journal.

How busy a place the rest tent was is indicated by the fact that 3,000 sanitary drinking cups were distributed there on Thursday. Miss Hanley and her assistants were kept busy keeping the drinking fountain filled and the nearby pump did a rushing business.

Tired women, many of them with little children, came to the tent to rest and were given intelligent, cheerful attention by the Misses Hanley and Marlow and their assistants. Two first aid cases were also given attention on Thursday.

So valuable has the Red Cross tent proved during the last two fairs that people now wonder how the fair ever got along without it. Next year, it is certain, it will be necessary to provide greater facilities.

The rest tent is just another instance of Red Cross service—a service which has demonstrated its worth in peace times no less than in war.

CALF WITH TWO HEADS BORN NEAR MARSHFIELD

A two headed calf was born at the farm of E. Cleveland, near Marshfield. One of Mr. Cleveland's cows gave birth to the calf, normal in every way, except that the animal had two heads. The calf was exceedingly healthy and each of the heads was perfectly formed. The little animal lived but a short time as another stepped on it, injuring it fatally. The body is being mounted for exhibit at the Marshfield fair.

CUPID'S AGENT IS FINED $100 BY JUDGE LUSE

Portage County Girl and Father Leniently Dealt with in Federal Court

Superior, Wis., August 20.—Stella Wryczka, at the age of 15, received as high as 34 registered letters through the Stevens Point post office in a single month, federal officers declared when Stella was fined $100 in federal court here on a charge of violating the postal laws.

The letters, all in Polish, were from scores of mail-order suitors all over the United States and Canada, who answered her advertisement in a matrimonial paper, according to the officials.

Stella is declared to have admitted to officials that she often received money in the letters, which she spent for pretty clothes and good times.

Must Pay With Savings

When Postoffice Inspector Niles was investigating a complaint of a neighbor that Stella had signed her name on an express receipt and obtained six dozen jars of canned fruit, he discovered the letters from Stella's suitors. She then quit her prospective matrimonial correspondence, and went to work in a cigar factory. It is out of her savings from her cigar factory job that Stella will have to pay her fine.

Stella now 17, was unmoved when she appeared in federal court last night to receive sentence.

No Charge on Love Notes

Stella pleaded guilty to a charge of taking an express receipt intended for another woman from her mailbox. No charge has been placed against her in connection with her alleged wholesale correspondence with prospective husbands.

Stella wore a black straw sailor hat and neat blue serge suit with an accordion pleated skirt. There was not more than a touch of rouge on her cheek. She answered questions propounded by Judge C. Z. Luse in such a low tone that the judge took her into his private office for examination, thereby disappointing a crowded courtroom.

Contrast to Father

Her father, Nick Wryczka, who has passed the three score and ten, grizzled and bent, accompanied her into the judge's room. So did her attorney, the post-office inspector, and the assistant district attorney.

When the conference in the judge's room ended, Stella started to pass through and out of the court-room. The bailiff called her back.

Youth, Age Got Mercy

"I believe in most violations of postal laws a jail sentence is advisable," said Judge Luse. "But in this case it is youth of one defendant and the age of the other, that leads me to set only a fine."

"But if this ever happens again, I will not take age into consideration."

"The people in this settlement at Stevens Point have got to learn that violations of postal laws must stop."

Father Hard Up

Stella walked to the marshal's office without a trace of emotion. She and her father did not have money to pay their fines. A few minutes before sentence was passed, her father had borrowed two dollars from one of the government witnesses. He had borrowed the same amount the night before.

The father said he had given up his 160-acre farm to his son, in return for his keep for life, and $20 a year "for medicine."

AMHERST MAN PINCHED FOR ANNOYING WOMAN

Gets Thirty Days in Winnebago County Jail on a Vagrancy Charge

Harry Olson, claiming Amherst as his home and who last week pleaded not guilty to a charge of vagrancy in Oshkosh, was Friday morning found guilty and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 or spend 30 days in jail. Upon failure to pay, he was committed to the Winnebago county jail.

Chief of Police Dowling of Oshkosh testified that Olson had been brought to police headquarters about three months ago and warned to leave the city and not return. That action was taken following complaint of a young lady who claimed that Olson annoyed her repeatedly.

Olson was arrested at this time because he came to Oshkosh and, without invitation, paid a visit at the home of an elderly couple with a 27 year old daughter. The daughter possessed several hundred dollars and it was stated that Olson tried to persuade the girl to run away with him and get married.

Olson, on the stand, said that he had been in Madison but that he had then come to this city at the request of the girl, who had promised to marry him but could not leave because of the illness of her mother. It was stated that Olson never left the house during the daytime and acted suspiciously taking great pains to avoid police officers.

Council Authorizes Giving Of Contracts For Armory Building

Contracts for the erection of the proposed new armory-stock sales pavilion-cattle exposition barn building on the fair grounds were authorized let to the lowest bidders by the common council Friday evening.

The contracts to be awarded are as follows:
Otrich-Shropshire, Inc., general construction work exclusive of plumbing and wiring, $23,175.

Fluch Brothers, plumbing and sewer, $1,350.

Bell's Electric Shop, wiring, $389.
The total cost of the new building will be $24,945, under the contracts. This amount is within the appropriation which was $25,000.

The committee on city buildings was authorized to supervise the erection of the building, with authority to employ assistants. The committee will also have the advice and assistance of Major H. C. Hengels, state military architect and engineer, who drew up the plans.

ANDRAE'S STORE NOW HANOWITZ'S

Merchants Operating at Chicago and Mosinee Take Charge of Well Known Store

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Andrae's, the store that leads, as the slogan has been, has become Hanowitz's, and will continue to be the store that leads.

The Hanowits, Harris B. and Myer Hanowitz, brothers, operating a big department store at Mosinee of high class and known over a large district, and also operating a store on the north side at Chicago, have purchased of G. W. Andrae the business of the G. F. Andrae company, founded by Mr. Andrae's father. Since the 9th of August the store has been closed for the taking of inventory. Papers for the transfer have been signed and the new owners are now in possession. The work of going over and marking the goods is still not quite complete, despite the employment of a large force, and it will be a couple of days before the store reopens. Plans in regard to the opening will be announced in detail Monday, at which time the date of opening will be published.

Harris B. Hanowitz, besides being active as a merchant, is president of the Farmers State bank at Mosinee. Both brothers will be here much of the time, and will give their personal attention to the merchandising in which they are thoroughly informed and experienced. Miss Cora Marquardt will be in charge of the dry-goods department, and Miss Frances Burts in charge of the ladies ready to wear department. The force of clerks includes Misses Hazel Kier, Margaret Glazinski, Anna Glazinski, Anna Petta, Clara Cryzan, J. Peterson, Irene Pfiffner, Alma Anderson and Anna Hooke and Stanley Werschowski. Miss Minne Burke remains bookkeeper. In addition to these the Hanowits expect to employ a number of other clerks and are advertising for them today in the Journal.

"We are here to serve the people with goods of the best quality and priced right," said the Messrs. Hanowitz today to the Journal. "We came into possession of a good stock. The Andrae store has always had the reputation of carrying good goods and we intend that the store under the new name shall have the same standing. That is our reputation elsewhere and it will be maintained here."

G. W. Andrae, retiring owner, said today that he would not engage in any other business for the present. He will be well occupied looking after his property interests.

The Andrae store was founded by the late G. F. Andrae and was operated by him for 49 years until his death and for 10 years it has been owned and operated by G. W. Andrae. It is the oldest store in Stevens Point and has maintained a standard for quality of goods which has made it well known over its trading territory.

FIND CONTAGIOUS DISEASE AMONG WOOD COUNTY CATTLE

A contagious disease among cattle known as hemorrhagic septicaemia, a systematic blood poisoning, has been discovered in five different herds in Wood county on farms both east and west of Wisconsin Rapids. County Agent R. A. Peterson has reported all cases to the state veterinarian and Wisconsin Rapids veterinarians are working to keep the disease from spreading generally among the herds. The infected cattle have been isolated and are given vaccines to counteract the poisoning. Although very contagious among cattle, the disease cannot be given to human beings by contact.

ROAD WORK GOING FAST

Concrete road construction in Wood county is proceeding at the rate of half a mile a day. It is expected that the majority of the concrete work in the county will have been completed by Oct. 15.

PURCHASE OF LAND ORDERED BY COUNCIL

Payment of $5,000 Authorized For the Sutherland Property on the South Side

The deal for the purchase by the city of the Sutherland property on the South side, a part of the block included in the proposed park opposite the Soo line depot, was ordered closed by the common council at a special meeting Friday evening.

A resolution introduced by Alderman Finch and unanimously adopted provides that the land, with a frontage of 55 feet on Division street, be purchased for the sum of $5,000, this amount to be paid by the proper city officials to George A. Sutherland on delivery of deed and abstract. It was announced by City Attorney Atwell that the papers for the deal are all ready in escrow at a local bank and that the deed provides that the building now on the property be removed by Mr. Sutherland within 60 days.

A considerable portion of the Sutherland property, after it is acquired by the city, will be used to widen Depot street, which at that point is dangerously narrow. The balance will become a part of the park plot, development of which had been held up owing to failure to close a deal for the Sutherland property.

The price to be paid for the Sutherland property will come out of the fund created by the sale of bonds when the park project was first put through.

PAPER MAN DIES SUDDENLY

W. Z. Stewart, an official of the Kimberly-Clark company, paper manufacturers at Neenah, died very suddenly on Sunday. He had been troubled with high blood pressure for several years but was able to continue his duties. On Saturday Mr. Stewart telephoned E. A. Oberweiser of this city, inviting him to attend a conference of paper makers at Neenah on Monday, and at that time was in fairly good health. The news of his unexpected death was a great shock to Mr. Oberweiser.

VOTE ON BOND ISSUE

The village of Amherst will vote September 2 on a $4,000 bond issue for the purpose of grading and graveling the street from the bridge on Mill street to the Soo line viaduct on Wilson street, and constructing curbs and gutters. The special election was called by the board of trustees of the village.

WANT TWENTY-FOUR HOUR SERVICE AT AMHERST

A petition is being circulated among the users of current supplied by the Amherst Electric Service company, asking the railroad commission to have this company supply twenty-four hour service to Amherst village consumers. The petition is being generously signed.

PAVING DELAYED TO NEXT SPRING CONCRETE WINS

ake but a short time to do that, he declared.

To put the concrete-brick controversy at an end, it was moved by Mayor John N. Welsby to put the matter to a vote. The roll was called from a list of concrete petitioners, for which a canvass had been made some time ago, and it was found that none of the signers present had changed their mind on the type of pavement wanted. The concrete adherents had won their point.

"Possible, Not Probable"

When Engineer Reichardt was asked if concrete could be laid this fall he answered, "It is possible, but not probable." He advised against concrete this fall, with the rainy fall season coming on, frosts to hinder the work, and the leaves of the trees falling into the pavement, all working against efforts to get a smooth surface. "Don't lay any pavement this year," he said. Mr. Reichardt has expressed this opinion previously, and advocated brick as a pavement for this fall only because some of the property owners had agitated the "pave-this-fall" question. He did not advocate brick as the best type of pavement, but did say that he thought it would be fully as good for that street as any other kind, in a short talk at the opening of the meeting.

H. J. Levi, belonging to the concrete faction, came out in favor of rejecting all of the present bids, and advertising for new bids that could be opened about February 1922, thus insuring an early job next spring. Gustav W. Hein opened the question of delaying the paving this fall by asking that the present bids be rejected.

Unanimous For Delay

H. B. Brooks joined the Messrs. Levi and Hein in their contentions, declaring that he thought that by so delaying a cheaper job could be secured. "Let's not pave this year, because the street is not ready for it," Mr. Brooks said. "In front of my own home the street is one and one-half feet above normal, and it must be allowed to settle. I think we will all be better satisfied if it is delayed to next year."

When a ballot of the property owners was taken it went unanimously for delay. Meehan Pfaffner "got on the band wagon" and voted for delay when his name was called because he said, "he didn't want to be the only one voting against it."

When a roll of the Wisconsin street residents was called to see if enough were present to decide the pavement question on the three blocks in that thoroughfare that are to be laid, it was found that eight of 14 owners were at the meeting. All voted for concrete, and sided with the Brawley street folks in the matter of waiting until 1922.

Wide Street Wanted

The width of the Brawley street pavement was brought up by Meehan Pfaffner who advocated a 24 foot pavement, which is specified in the original plans of the engineer. Advocates of a wider street have been busy, however, and a 28 foot pavement has been decided. When the roll on the question of width was called, a big majority voted in favor of the wider pavement.

Mr. Gordon, the representative of the Trinity Lutheran church interests, said "Goodness knows, a 24 foot, 20 or 16 and 10 foot pavement would be wide enough for the church, because we'd have plenty of room, but I think we all ought to be public spirited enough to put in a wide street. Our streets are all too narrow now. Why should we continue to make them too narrow? When Main street was put in it was said to be plenty wide enough, and now it's so narrow it becomes dangerous to drive a car. I think almost had an accident on Normal avenue only a short time ago because the street was too narrow." He voted for 28 feet.

Wisconsin to be 30

Property owners on Wisconsin street were also called upon to vote on the width of their pavement. This street is to be 30 feet, and those owners present were unanimous for that width. It was pointed out by Engineer Reichardt after the vote had been taken that the width of Wisconsin street would have to be 30 feet because the street is already 30 feet wide where it has been paved.

BUG OR WOOD BORER DESTROYING TREES

Meehan Correspondent Calls Upon Bright Boys of Stevens Point For Aid

Meehan, Wis., Aug. 23.—A small black bug or wood borer is at work among the shade trees, especially the pines.

Several in the church grove as well as at other places have been destroyed by the little pests. There is a general complaint and we were wondering if some of the bright boys at Stevens Point could tell us all about the pests and give us a remedy for destroying them, thus conferring a favor and helping to save the trees.

Start on Long Trip

Allen and Leslie Fox started Friday on an auto trip, taking a full camping outfit with them. They will be gone about a week and will visit at Hatfield, Merrillan, Alma Center and Arcadia. They will also call at Winona, Minn., and at Fountain City, Wis. At Lake Arbuthus they will try their luck at fishing.

Through Threshing

Oren Glendening has moved his machine home from Linwood and has finished threshing for the season, after several successful weeks' run.

Farmers are busy cutting their corn. Pretty early, but it has been so very dry that half of the fodder is now dead and the corn is ripe and hard. Silo filling will soon commence as the hay crop is short and the corn fodder must be saved.

Entertainments

Miss Hilda Lutz entertained several friends Saturday night at a dancing party, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. A pleasant time was had by all present.

Personals

Dr. Lindores has been a frequent professional caller here lately. There is lots of sickness among the children. Harry Slack has one little girl quite ill.

The fair was quite well attended by people from this vicinity.

Several from here will attend the big picnic at Kellner Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Chusman and R. N. Slack, who are working on the road south of Kellner, came up Sunday and spent a few hours with friends.

Henry Gurion and wife, Fred B. Fox and family, R. W. Parks and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Parks, and D. N. Parks and family constituted an auto party that motored down to the home of Clark Smith who lives on Strong's prairie, Adams county, to attend a picnic dinner. Mr. Smith formerly lived here.

Mrs. Frank Mathewson of Stevens Point was a caller here Sunday.

Frank Vorzalla has also pulled his machine home as the threshing is all done.

Plainfield, Wis., Aug. 23.—A call has been extended to Rev. Mr. Powell, a former pastor of the Baptist church in this city but now of the state of Missouri, to be returned to Plainfield. Rev. Mr. Powell was here several days but has now returned to Missouri.

Short Notes

District Superintendent Barnes preached at the M. E. church in town Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Sumner Sparks were guests of Robert Wood and family at Stevens Point Sunday.

Mrs. H. G. Smith arrived home Saturday from a several weeks' visit with relatives in South Dakota.

George Mazurek is building a 12x12 foot addition on the south of his farm house.

Ed. Cornwell and family were called to Stevens Point Sunday by the serious illness of his brother, Charles Cornwell of Plainfield, who is now a patient at St. Michael's hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Winslow and daughter Alma were called to Strong's prairie Wednesday to attend the funeral of Belle Bloomfield, the six and one-half year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bloomfield. The child was suffering from appendicitis and was taken to the Maunston hospital Sunday morning and was operated on at once, but died that same evening, as the appendix had burst.

BASEBALL TEAM WON

Port Edwards a Victim of Baneroff by 6 to 1 Score

Baneroff, Wis., August 23.—The Baneroff ball team defeated the Port Edwards team here Sunday by a score of 6 to 1. It was a nice clean game but the Port team was a little slower than usual. Baneroff will play the Westfield team at Baneroff August 28. It promises to be a good game and the last on the home grounds this year as Baneroff will finish at Westfield and Wautoma fairs.

SOCIETY AND WOMEN'S NEWS

Heisen-Egan

A pretty wedding took place Tuesday, Aug. 16, in St. Mary's church at Menasha when Miss Cecille Heisen of Menasha and Howard E. Egan of Madison were united by Rev. John Hummel.

Both Miss Heisen and Mr. Egan are former residents of Stevens Point. Both having been members of the High school faculty for two years. Miss Heisen was librarian at the school during the past year, while Mr. Egan taught elementary sciences, civics and economics.

The bride wore a gown of white charmeuse and carried a shower bouquet of white asters. Miss Marie Heisen, bridesmaid, a sister of the bride, wore gray taffeta with a corsage bouquet of pink asters. Frank Shuster of Oshkosh attended the bridegroom.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Egan left for St. Paul where they will make their home.

The bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Oberweiser of this city, and is a graduate of the Stevens Point Normal, taking a position in the faculty of the Stevens Point High school immediately after her graduation.

Mr. Egan is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and was with the Extension division of the University for some time after his graduation. He came to Stevens Point in 1919.

Delphians Organize

A local branch of the National Delphian society was organized Tuesday, when a group of representative women met at the Public library club rooms to elect officers and arrange for the first year's work.

This class is one of 25 that have been established in this state within the last month and forms a link in a chain of more than 1,000 chapters that are following the Delphian plan in the United States today.

Civilization is a product of education and education is but the outgrowth of desire for self-improvement. The Delphian plan makes it possible for the busy twentieth century woman to fulfill her desire for continued education and enables her to make some progress in cultural development with a minimum expenditure of time and effort.

The class will hold its first meeting Monday afternoon, September 12, at 2:30 o'clock in the Public library club rooms, when it will begin the study of the "Epochs of Progress."

Mrs. T. M. Orlch was unanimously elected president of the class, other officers being elected as follows: Vice-president, Mrs. A. H. Sikes. Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. John S. Hensel.

Chairman of advisory board, Mrs. J. M. Pfaffner.

H. S. Dyer Married

Announcements have been received in the city of the marriage of Miss Hannah Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Johnson of Madison, to Harold S. Dyer in that city on Thursday, August 18. They will be at home, the announcement states, after Oct. 1, in Stevens Point.

Mr. Dyer is director of music at the Stevens Point Normal.

Marriage Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rowe, 850 Main street, Stevens Point, announce the marriage of their daughter, Genevieve, to Roynton King Miller of Fond du Lac, on Saturday, August 20, in Columbus, Wisconsin.

Fred Hollenbeck Married

The marriage of Fred Hollenbeck, formerly a resident of Stevens Point, to Miss Esther Wanning of Rhinelander, took place at the rectory of St. Mary's church Thursday morning at Rhinelander. Rev. Father Bertram performed the ceremony, and the couple was attended by Blanche Wanning and Louis Fenelon.

Both are well known young people of Rhinelander. Mr. Hollenbeck holds a position as a traveling salesman for a wholesale house, and the bride was until recently employed by the Chicago and Northwestern railway company there. They will make Rhinelander their home.

Mr. Hollenbeck has many friends in Stevens Point. He was employed for some time by the Copps company of this city as a traveling salesman and pitched for local baseball teams.
